

Local and Personal

River stationary. Gauge reads 13.3.

Steamers Cape Girardeau and St. Louis are due down today.

Ernest A. Green of St. Louis was a business visitor in the Cape Monday.

Roy Hunt of Naylor spent Monday in the Cape.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Vickery of Chaffee were in the Cape on a shopping trip Monday.

O. L. Fuson of Puxico came to the Cape Monday to look after some matters of business.

L. Story and wife of St. Louis are Cape visitors this week.

Pearl Cox of St. Louis was a Cape visitor Monday.

J. McCann of Grand Tower paid the Cape a business call Monday.

Edna Brown of Jackson was a Cape visitor Monday.

Want Ads will give you results in the Tribune.

Dix Walker of Oak Ridge transacted business in the Cape Monday.

Elmer Humphrey of Illinois was a business visitor in the Cape Friday.

James Walker of Bloomfield transacted business in the Cape Friday.

V. D. Laval of Chaffee had business in the Cape Friday.

D. L. Spencer of St. Louis transacted business in the Cape Friday.

J. M. McElroy and wife of Caruthersville visited in the Cape Monday and continued their trip to St. Louis Tuesday morning.

Helen Monroe of St. Louis visited in the Cape Monday.

Mrs. J. Wamack of Chaffee was in the Cape Monday on a shopping trip.

J. P. Jones of Memphis transacted business in the Cape Monday.

U. G. Owens of Bloomington had business in the Cape Monday.

J. W. Oliver of Breckenridge, Mo., came to the Cape Monday on matters of business.

A. H. Mercer of Morehouse is looking after some business in the Cape this week.

J. S. Raybourn of Marion, Ill., transacted business in the Cape Monday.

C. C. Cox of Allenville was a Cape visitor Monday.

The following visitors from St. Louis are transacting business in the Cape this week: L. D. Marlowe, C. H. Robnett, Edw. L. Smyth, G. W. Wissman, C. E. Durrill, J. A. Kirsting, and P. Robert.

The Knights and Ladies of Security will hold their meeting Tuesday evening in their Club rooms on Broadway.

J. M. Carnahan of Van Buren is looking after business interests in the Cape this week.

J. F. Renshaw of Monroe City, Mo., is a business visitor in the Cape this week.

Joseph Schmitt of Kelo paid the Cape a business visit Monday.

L. J. Summerlin of Allenville came to the Cape Monday to look after some business matters.

E. A. Morris of Delta transacted business in the Cape Monday.

G. C. Ventres and J. B. Sledge of Allenville were business visitors in the Cape last Monday.

J. S. Schneck of Milwaukee is in the Cape this week attending to business affairs.

Mrs. P. H. Hook is visiting relatives and friends in Malden this week.

J. W. Blakemore of Poplar Bluff is looking after business affairs in the Cape this week.

John H. Patterson of Marble Hill transacted business in the Cape Monday.

River excursion tonight, May 5th. Steamer Cape Girardeau. Good Music and a jolly time guaranteed. Price 50 cents. Boat leaves wharf 8 p. m.

W. A. Dunn of Marble Hill was a Cape visitor Monday.

J. L. Cook of Chicago had business in the Cape Monday.

C. O. Grosch of Randles was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

Green Cox, a prominent farmer from Green Cox Station was in town Tuesday having some gun repairing done.

W. C. Siemers of Gordonville, transacted business in the Cape Tuesday.

John Biggett of Reynoldsville, Ill., was in the Cape Monday making some purchases and attending to other matters of business.

J. E. Whitsett of Advance transacted business in the Cape Monday.

Mrs. George Heiserer and Sophia Heiserer of Oran, were in the Cape Monday on a shopping trip.

L. Turner of Brownwood was in the Cape Monday in the transaction of business.

A. P. Flaherty of Chicago was a Cape visitor Friday.

V. V. Wright of Campbell has business in the Cape this week.

Otto Katz of New Orleans has business in the Cape this week.

James Danton of LaGrange, Ind., is a Cape visitor this week.

Stella and Marie Day of St. Genevieve are Cape visitors this week.

E. Gibbons of Greenup, Ill., had business in the Cape Friday.

J. H. Turner of Moberly transacted business in the Cape Friday.

J. W. Brown of Louisville, Ky., had business in the Cape Friday.

Geo. B. Cox of Dexter was a Cape visitor Friday.

Edgar Samples of Commerce paid the Cape a business call Monday.

Advertise in the Tribune if you want results.

John W. Garner of Advance is in the Cape this week on a business trip.

J. B. Messenger of Cairo is looking after business interests in the Cape this week.

R. St. Clair of Joplin came to the Cape Monday to look after some business matters.

W. E. Luttrull of Jackson transacted business in the Cape Monday.

A. J. Crawford, formerly of Brownwood, who recently purchased a livery stable business in this city, was joined by his family Monday evening, and in the future they will make their home in this city.

A. C. Anderson a Fornelt contractor was in the Cape Tuesday on a business trip.

C. D. Kage, formerly of this city, now engaged in the meat market business in Illinois, came to the Cape Tuesday to purchase some supplies.

John Ahrens, a prominent farmer of East Cape, came to the Cape Tuesday, bringing his daughter, Mrs. Edmundson, to place her in the hospital where she will receive medical treatment.

There will be an excursion Tuesday evening on the Steamer Cape Girardeau, given for the benefit of the Cape Ball team. The boat will leave the wharf for Commerce at 8 o'clock in the evening and will return at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Rolla Fox who has been quite sick for sometime, has been taken to St. Francis Hospital for treatment.

Beulah Gouge of this city has brought suit in the Common Pleas Court for divorce and $15 per month alimony, from her husband Robert Gouge.

The Temperance speaker, Malcolm R. Patterson failed to fill his engagement in this city Monday night on account of sudden illness. Arrangements have since been made with Mr. Baker, President of the National Anti-Saloon League for a date with Mr. Patterson in the near future.

Mr. E. W. Flentge, the postmaster, reports that he has been unfortunate in hatching his chickens this spring, but that the loss in quantity is made up in quality and that he is possessed of some of the finest young Buff Orpingtons that were ever placed on exhibition.

S. W. Madge of Omaha, had business in the Cape Friday.

A. T. Harty of Bloomfield paid the Cape a business visit Friday.

Chas. E. Smythe of Hamilton, O., transacted business in the Cape Friday.

George C. Orchard of Poplar Bluff transacted business in the Cape Thursday.

P. G. Malone of Oak Ridge made a hurried business trip to the Cape Thursday.

Frank D. Dairy of Chicago is transacting business in the Cape this week.

R. P. Bowles of Kansas City spent Thursday in the Cape transacting business.

Dr. W. G. Walker and James A. Kinder from St. Louis Thursday night after a two days business trip.

The Civic Improvement Association will meet at the Commercial Club Rooms at 3:30 Saturday afternoon.

N. L. McLaurin and John Dormyer of Jackson were Cape visitors Thursday.

H. L. Smith and J. L. Tenner, prominent citizens of Sikeston, transacted business in the Cape Saturday.

E. W. Fix of St. Louis and C. V. Goffinet of New Orleans were business visitors in the Cape Thursday.

Margaret Percefield of Illinois has secured employment as dining room girl at the Prescott Hotel in this city.

Judge H. E. Alexander went to Benton Friday morning to attend to some court matters.

W. A. Russell a prominent business man of Neelys Landing came to the Cape from St. Louis Thursday night.

Tom Myers of Sikeston is spending a few days in the Cape this week in the transaction of business.

Judge Edward D. Hays came over to the Cape Thursday afternoon to attend to some legal business.

On May 10th there will be a meeting at the Marquette Hotel in St. Louis of all the committees of the Drummers Association and representatives of the Commercial Club and Retail Merchants Association to arrange details for the big drummers meeting to be held in this city the first week in June.

Grandmother Meyers whose home is on rural route No. 3, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Caroline Meyers and her grandson George Meyers, City Collector. Grandmother Meyers is 94 years of age.

Arthur Leher the tinner, has been employed in the construction of the roof on the new addition to the Meyer-Suedekum Hardware Store, and expects to complete the task by Friday evening.

J. W. Masok has developed some savage traits, having recently purchased an Indian motorcycle with side attachment from Dr. Willis. This is the first motorcycle with side attachment sold in this city.

From advices received, indications point to a big meeting here Saturday when 14 rural schools will hold their annual exercises in Cape Girardeau. The city schools and rural schools will give a big parade of which moving pictures will be taken.

George B. Cox of Dexter had business in the Cape Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwar Langevin came down from St. Louis Thursday night, and will make the Cape their home for the present.

Will Arnold, Will Battle and Ed. Huggins of Scott County came to the Cape Friday on a business trip.

Steamer City of St. Louis arrived in the Cape at about noon Friday on her northbound trip.

D. H. Hickman, W. T. Carver, Paul Chambers, Mrs. P. T. Bolz, T. W. Harmer, S. P. Kennedy and J. O'Donnell were St. Louis visitors in the Cape Thursday.

Rolla Hitt and Walter Miller, prominent farmers from Arbor, came to the Cape Monday morning for a short business trip. Mr. Hitt reports that everything is looking fine in his neighborhood, and makes the proud boast that he has the lead on his neighbors in the corn growing industry. He has 35 acres not only planted, but up and ready for the plow. He intends to take a shipment of fat cattle to the St. Louis market in a few days.

E. W. Fristoe of Kansas City had business in the Cape Thursday.

T. Gale of Paducah paid the Cape a business visit Thursday.

W. B. Finch of Fornelt transacted business in the Cape Thursday.

J. F. Suche of St. Louis is in the Cape on a business trip.

R. A. Webster transacted business in the Cape Thursday.

Mrs. L. P. Rogers of Walnut Ridge, Ark., visited in the Cape Sunday.

J. H. Smith of Nashville, is a business visitor in the Cape this week.

V. W. Browning of Jackson passed through the Cape Saturday on his way to St. Louis.

J. M. Ward and A. J. Wallace of Clarkton had business in the Cape Friday.

E. A. Miles shipped out a large number of fat hogs and cattle Saturday.

Mrs. August Rhodemayer of Anzell, was in the Cape Saturday on a shopping trip.

W. N. Sturges of New York is in the Cape this week on a business mission.

E. J. Deal a prominent citizen of Charleston, transacted business in the Cape Friday.

E. F. Summers returned from St. Louis Friday night where he had gone to see the Ringling Brothers' Shows.

A. J. Masters a prominent farmer living about five miles West of the Cape was in town Saturday on a shopping trip.

M. E. Lesem returned Friday from an extended business trip through Northwest Arkansas and Southwest Missouri.

On account of taking inventory at the shoe factory Saturday all the floors are idle except the 4th and 5th and the south end of the first.

John E. Marshall, a prominent business man of Sikeston, was a visitor in the Cape Thursday.

Charles Smith of Advance came to the Cape Thursday to look after some business matters.

W. B. Arnold of Neelys Landing came down to the Cape Thursday to look after some business matters.

John R. Lett of Charleston was in the Cape on a business trip Thursday.

Wm. J. Lovewell of Muscatine, Iowa, is in the Cape on a business trip.

J. W. Keller of Bloomfield came to the Cape Thursday to look after some business matters.

C. E. Wilson and Frank McDaniel of Delta came to the Cape Thursday to transact some business.

Floyd Huntsman and E. Himman of Paragould, Ark., are in the Cape on a business trip.

Charles Edmundson, a prominent farmer of McClure, Ill., transacted business in the Cape Thursday.

H. H. Humphreys of Little Rock, Ark., has business in the Cape this week.

C. O. Proffer of Advance is in the Cape this week looking after business affairs.

C. E. Constance, Wm. M. Jacobs, and T. Levy of St. Louis were business visitors in the Cape Thursday.

Joe Wagner of Oran, formerly of this city, came to the Cape Friday to have his teeth treated.

Frank Long of Uniontown, a real estate man, stopped in the Cape Friday on his return from Pocahontas, Ark., where he had taken a party of prospective land buyers.

Miss Lena Harenburg of Jackson was in the Cape Friday looking after her interest in a 12-room modern residence building she is having constructed on Painter avenue.

Bud Ward of Fredericktown has been in the Cape for a few days visiting his son Otto who has been quite seriously ill with measles. When the young man is able to travel he will return with his father to Fredericktown where he will rest and recuperate before beginning his work again at the Cement Factory.

John Foster of Allenville had business in the Cape Friday.

A. S. Richey and son of Chaffee came up to the Cape Thursday.

Margerite Thompson of Illinois is visiting friends in the Cape.

Wm. Mahafferty of Allenville had business in the Cape Wednesday.

T. D. Lyon of Thebes, transacted business in the Cape Thursday.

J. F. Stevenson of Lee Summit was a Cape visitor Thursday.

Joe Enderle of Illinois is in the Cape transacting business.

T. R. Samuel of Cairo, Ill., is in the Cape on a business trip this week.

Mae Pinkerton of Poplar Bluff was a Cape visitor Thursday.

I. D. Hill of Little Rock had business in the Cape Friday.

J. W. Ellis of St. Genevieve had business in the Cape Wednesday.

H. F. Goss of St. Joseph was a Cape visitor Friday.

H. M. Trull of Nashville, Tenn., is in the Cape on a business trip.

W. F. Scott of Poplar Bluff has business in the Cape this week.

C. E. Cooper of Tomato, Ark., has business in the Cape this week.

J. Wise Brown of Memphis had business in the Cape Wednesday.

Martin Berefield of St. Louis is in the Cape on a business trip.

W. F. Cochran of Rochester is in the Cape this week on a business trip.

W. C. Windevich of St. Paul transacted business in the Cape Thursday.

W. L. Sorrell of Bloomfield transacted business in the Cape Thursday.

Tom Kinder of Delta came to the Cape on a business trip Saturday.

S. B. Stewart of Cincinnati is a business visitor in the Cape this week.

C. W. Howard and L. D. Marlow of St. Louis had business in the Cape Thursday.

W. M. Hunter of Kennett is transacting business in the Cape this week.

F. A. C. Skinner and George Franky of St. Louis were Cape visitors Thursday.

T. H. Ancell of Hayti, formerly of this city came to the Cape Thursday on a business trip.

E. E. Tedlow and G. W. Blackford of St. Louis had business in the Cape Thursday.

Tom Barber returned Friday from Pocahontas, Ark., where it is said he purchased a farm.

Sergeant O'Rourke advises that he has two applicants at the local recruiting station awaiting the coming of the "War Boss" who is expected in a short time.

D. C. Bailey and C. C. Slinkard of Marble Hill were Cape visitors Saturday.

J. A. Watkins, a well known citizen of Oran, transacted business in the Cape Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Proctor of Delta were in the Cape on a shopping trip Saturday.

E. G. Matthews and wife of Sikeston were Cape visitors Saturday.

Advertise in the Tribune if you want results.

W. A. Graves of Rector, Ark., paid the Cape a business trip Saturday.

Postmaster E. W. Flentge went to Jackson Monday morning on a business trip.

James Coppage and A. D. Bahn of Canolou were Cape visitors Saturday.

Frank Shackles of Chaffee was in the Cape Saturday on a business trip.

Mrs. A. J. Crawford of Advance is in the Cape Saturday on a shopping trip.

Mr. R. L. Lesem of this city went to Jacksonville, Fla., Sunday to attend the soldiers' re-union. He goes as a musician and will play in the Kennett band. He will probably be away for about a week.

R. Maloney of Caruthersville transacted business in the Cape Friday.

C. H. Andrews of Poplar Bluff was a Cape visitor Friday.

J. R. Erwin of Chaffee was a Cape visitor Friday.

E. O. Proffer of Advance had business in the Cape Friday.

W. G. Shipe of Kansas City had business in the Cape Friday.

H. H. Piper of Jackson was a Cape visitor Friday.

T. J. Kinkad of St. Louis had business in the Cape Friday.

R. L. Fire and C. G. Wiseman of St. Louis were Cape visitors Friday.

U. G. Jacobs and E. F. Jacobs of Blodgett spent Sunday in the Cape.

W. W. Davis, prominent timberman from Chaonia came to the Cape Friday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. James Griffin and Dr. R. C. Lynch of Success, Ark., were Cape visitor Friday.

B. G. Noel of Springfield, Mo., is looking after business matters in the Cape this week.

C. S. O'Brien and W. H. Proctor of Whitewater had business in the Cape Friday.

William Hinkle left the Cape Friday afternoon for a business trip to Canolou and vicinity.

Wm. P. Day of St. Louis is in the Cape this week attending to some insurance matters.

John Foster of Delta came to the Cape Saturday to attend to some business affairs.

Mrs. Ethel Akers of Chaffee spent Friday in the Cape on a shopping expedition.

John Simmons of Egypt Mills was in the Cape Friday doing some trading.

S. B. Stewart of Cincinnati and George Franky of St. Louis are in the Cape where they are engaged in installing blow pipes in the shoe factory.

J. M. Thompson and V. J. Schumacker, traveling salesman of St. Louis are in the Cape attending to the needs of their patrons.

John Bull the popular street car conductor has returned from his old home in Perry County where he has been visiting his mother for several days.

Sergeant O'Rourke of the local recruiting station advises that there is a probability of the station being closed at this point and a new one opened in Jefferson City.

The trial of Mrs. N. C. O'Neal, charged with disturbing the peace of Myrtle Davis, which was to have been heard by Justice Willer Saturday morning, was postponed on account of the defendant failing to put in her appearance.

Al Daues the well known bricklayer is enduring considerable pain and inconvenience on account of having gotten a fragment of flying brick in his eye Friday while working on the construction of the Wasm residence.

Red Field and Charley Rogers old time boys, who were formerly employed in the shoe factory in this city, returned from St. Louis a few days ago to visit among friends and relatives.

The following visitors from St. Louis were in the Cape Friday: R. A. Bird, L. W. Scott, P. H. Brame, D. H. Hickman, Thos. J. J. Brideleker, F. C. Patty, and G. E. Steiner.

There will be a big excursion given by the local mail clerks next Friday. The steamer St. Paul will carry the band of pleasure seekers and will leave the Cape at 8 o'clock Friday evening for Commerce, returning at 11:30.

The local postoffice department has been for several days experimenting for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the use of automobiles in the parcels post service would be advantageous. Herman Bock's car has been devoted to that use, and Postmaster Flentge reports that he is greatly pleased with the service rendered. He expresses himself of the opinion that autos should be used exclusively for that particular class of service in this city, and he hopes to be able to establish that method of service in the Cape.